

From what I can see, NPRM 02-230 would fly right in the face of almost any reasonable interpretation of the private citizens' right to free speech in the digital age. I thought our government was supposed to protect these rights, not destroy them.